

Warning: This form waives all of your legal rights in this case.

DO NOT sign it if you want to know what will be ordered in your case. You can waive service of process, but keep your legal rights by filing an Answer, instead. You can find an Answer form in the family law section of www.TexasLawhelp.org.

In the interest of (List children):

- 1 Name: _____
- 2 Name: _____
- 3 Name: _____
- 4 Name: _____

§
§
§
§
§
§

Cause No:

In the _____ District County Court of:

_____ County, Texas

Waiver of Service

Instructions to Obligor:

Give the Obligee the following documents and ask him/her to follow the Instructions to Obligee:

- A copy of your Motion to Terminate Withholding for Child Support that has already been filed in the clerk’s office and shows the official court stamp.
- A blank copy of this form.
- After the Obligee signs and notarizes the Waiver, file it in the clerk’s office. Keep a copy for your records.

Instructions to Obligee:

- Read the Warning at the top of this form. Talk to a lawyer if you don’t understand it.
- If you decide you want to continue, fill out this form. – Do not sign until you are in front of the notary!
- Take this form and a filed copy of the Motion to Terminate Withholding for Child Support to a notary. (The filed copy has an official court stamp and date in the upper left corner.)
- Sign the form in front of the notary, and give it to the Obligor. The Obligor will file it in the clerk’s office.
- If you feel uncomfortable signing this form, don’t sign it. Consider filing an Answer instead. Talk to a lawyer about your rights in a lawsuit.

Obligee’s Personal Information

1. My name is: _____
First Middle Last

2. My home address is: _____
street address city state zip

3. Global Waiver

I agree that the court can make decisions in this case without further notice to me.

4. The Obligee swears under oath:

“The Obligor gave me this form and a filed copy of the Motion to Terminate Withholding for Child Support with the same cause number as the cause number on this form. I have read the Motion and understand what it says.

“I do not want a peace officer or process server to give me another copy of the Motion. I waive my right to the issuance and service of citation in this case.

Warning: This form waives all of your legal rights in this case.

DO NOT sign it if you want to know what will be ordered in your case. You can waive service of process, but keep your legal rights by filing an Answer, instead. You can find an Answer form in the family law section of www.TexasLawhelp.org.

“I understand that by signing this form I am entering an appearance, and it is a substitute for going to Court and telling the Court my side of the case. I do not want testimony in this divorce recorded. And, I agree that a Judge, Associate Judge, or appointed Referee of the Court may make decisions about my case, even if it should have been filed in another county or state.

“I give up all rights, privileges, and exemptions I may have under the Soldier’s and Sailor’s Civil Relief Act of 1940, including having a lawyer appointed to represent me in this case.”

“I agree that the court can make decisions in this case without further notice to me.”

(Respondent signs here in front of a notary.)

Notary fills out below

State of Texas, County of _____ (Print the name of county where this statement is notarized.)

Sworn to and subscribed before me, the undersigned authority, on this date: _____

By (Print Notary’s name): _____, Notary Public, State of Texas

(Notary’s seal here)

Notary’s signature